

Dr Indrani Bhattacharya is senior clinical oncology trainee who has recently completed a 3-year CRUK Clinical Trials Research Fellowship at The Institute of Cancer Research's Clinical Trials and Statistics Unit, working within the portfolio of breast radiotherapy trials including the IMPORT and PRIMETIME studies. Her areas of interest include optimising the use of patient-reported outcomes and the improvement of information provision to patients in de-escalation trials.